

SERBIAN BOOTLEGGER SHOT

WHEN HE RESISTED ARREST IN A SHANTY NEAR DILLSBURG.

Was in Act of Felling a State Policeman with an Axe When Bullet Ended His Life.

George Alekiesich of Steelton, was shot and instantly killed late Saturday night in a little farm house in the upper end of York county, by a state trooper when, in resisting the service of a search warrant and armed with a long handled axe, Alekiesich, made a murderous attack upon another state trooper. The man was about fifty years old and is a native of Serbia.

The fatal shot was fired at 11:15 o'clock by Sergeant August Ahlquist, who in charge of a detail of state police, was on the premises of Harry Grant, in Carroll township, about three miles from Siddonsburg, five miles from Harrisburg, for the purpose of making a search on a warrant charging illegal manufacture and possession of intoxicating liquor.

Arriving on the scene about 9:45 o'clock, Sergeant Ahlquist and Private Goucher approached the two and a half story frame dwelling painted white, and demanded admittance in the name of the law. This was refused, the man in the building becoming abusive and violent.

Sergeant Ahlquist called for aid from the sub-station at Harrisburg, and Privates Albert Davis, Henry Buckbee and Herman Atkins were dispatched to the scene, arriving after 10 o'clock.

Then the detail of five state troopers with Sergeant Ahlquist, proceeded to manoeuvre to gain entrance to the little frame structure. The man inside the building was seen to have a long handled axe, such as is used in wood chopping and felling trees, in his hands, but the officers were not dismayed.

Finally the officers "rushed" the place, several entering on the first floor and others scaling the outside of the place and entering by a window on the second floor, all ready to seize the man inside the building.

During the entire melee the man hurled defiance at the officers, shouting an epithet at the officers in the Serbian tongue, and calling them a vile name in English, declaring that he would kill them.

When several of the men used a door as a shield and attempted to mount the narrow stairway the man wielded his axe with such result as to demolish this frail protection. Finally, standing inside a small room on the second floor of the place, the angry man had Privates Albert Davis and Henry Buckbee cornered, with the heavy axe about to descend upon the head of Buckbee. This was at the top of the stairway. Sergeant Ahlquist, at the foot of the stairway, first fired as a portion of Alekiesich's face cleared the doorway and protruded in the stairway. The bullet struck the right side of the face a little above the mouth, took an upward course, passing through the brain, and out the top of the right side of head. He dropped over dead.

The search for intoxicating liquor revealed that the place was being used as a distillery. Twenty-two large barrels of raisin mash were located in a front room on the first floor. A still of twenty-five gallon capacity was found in another room. Twenty-five gallons of the finished products were also found. The liquor, still and other damaging evidence was seized and taken by the state troopers.

Mysterious Fire Destroys Barn.

Mystery surrounds the cause of a fire, which completely destroyed the large bank barn on the farm of Chas. Altland, one-quarter mile west of Abbottstown on Monday evening. In the barn were 14 head of steers, of which a number were burned to death. Five mules, about 15 hogs, 100 chickens, two buggies, a new farm wagon, a number of valuable farming implements, 100 bushels of wheat, and 50 bushels of rye, were consumed by the blaze.

A number of mysterious happenings on the farm, occurred recently, culminating in Monday's fire. First, about ten days ago a large belt for threshing machine was sliced in two, with a knife. Second, at 2 P. M. Monday, a slight blaze was discovered in the feeding entry by one of the helpers. This blaze was extinguished with little difficulty. The suspicions of Mr. Altland had been aroused, and at intervals during the afternoon he visited the scene of the first conflagration, but could see no one loitering about.

The time of the arrival of the East Berlin bus, about 4 o'clock, Mr. Altland expecting a new employe, went into Abbottstown to meet the bus. On his return to the barn, he discovered the blaze, which had already reached such a height as to render attempts to save the barn hopeless.

All during the afternoon Mr. Altland and his tenant farmer, William Lauber and other helpers, were threshing wheat, on the bank side of the barn which is located about 100 feet from the scene of the origin of the fire, which was in the steer stable.

As soon as the fire was discovered by Mr. Altland he notified his help, who assisted him in releasing the livestock. The five mules perished before they could be helped. There were 14 head of steers, of which at least half were burned to death, or so seriously they had to be killed. Of the 75 hogs and pigs, in the hog pen, which is adjoining to the barn, it is thought that only about 15 were lost. The others were at large. About two-thirds of the 150 chickens in the coop, which also adjoins the barn, perished, before they could be reached. Not one of the farming implements could be saved.

Although the loss could not be estimated it is thought it will be $8,000. Only small insurance was carried.

To provide for enlargement of the plant and erection of new buildings a tract of land immediately adjoining the present site was purchased to-day from John Hersh. A representative of the United Shoe Machinery Company is in conference with the new owners, relative to equipping the plant with much additional machinery. Mr. Best, one of the former owners will become the head of the sales force of the company.

OUR THIRTY-EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY

"Big Oaks from Little Acorns Grow"

Thirty eight years ago we started business at our present location on the northwest corner of Center Square. We started in a humble way and have only grown to our present size by constantly giving the best service possible to our host of customers and friends. There will be many in the county and other nearby towns who will remember the first days of our coming to Gettysburg and it will be these same people who will appreciate to what extent we have grown. Our store now one of the largest in this section of the country and for a town the size of Gettysburg there are very few that have stores as large. Our field of operations has greatly enlarged through the medium of our excellent Parcel Post Service and the prompt attention we give to phone orders. If you have never been numbered among those who have tested our service by mail, phone or personal shopping you have a pleasant surprise before you. The extent of our stock, the up-to-dateness of our merchandise and method of doing business will impress you. So get the habit of shopping at the store near you—which is our store—and keep your money at home.

WE ARE GOING TO GIVE THE BIGGEST BIRTHDAY PARTY YOU HAVE EVER BEEN INVITED TO.

It has long been the custom of people to have big parties in celebration of their birthdays and so we have decided to do the same thing. Instead of your bringing us presents we are going to give you presents in the form of bargains on four days of next week.

WE CORDIALLY INVITE YOU TO OUR BIRTHDAY PARTY APRIL 10, 11, 12, AND 13.

Every one of the four days will present bargains worth while and will mean a saving of money to every purchaser.
